was thrown down the outside of the wall. Underhill commanded me to slide down. He followed the wire around my neck till it fastened to his wrist.

"When he had descended the wall Bailey was struck in the leg by a shot fired from the wall. He was hit in the rear seat of the Woodson's (farm pickup, superintendent) car. Facing two guards, one convict and myself, the running board, Underhill said: 'Show us a good road or I'll kill you. Underhill'.

SHOWED HIS ROAD

"I told him I would direct him to a good highway. Four miles east of Wallula there was a car stalled in the middle of the road. Underhill commanded the car, changing places with Woodson, the driver passenger, and we proceeded. Bailey was bleeding freely by this time.

"A police car overtook us below Oliva, Kansas. Davis, who was driving our car, stopped under two convicts jumped out prepared to meet their pursuers. All within firing range the second car turned around and sped away without any loss.

"Fourteen miles further on the convicts appropriated another car and bought their second supply of gas at Eden, Kansas. Here, one of the convicts produced a pint of whiskey, to which the warden consented. The fugitives became jubilant.

TOUCH OF DRAMA

"Their release approached the dramatic, as told by the warden. As we entered the station, Hills, son of Warden H. said:

Little "Girl" Fools Police By Appearance

A small girl, too young to know her name or address, completely fooled the men at police headquarters Wednesday morning when Constable James McMurtry brought her to the station. The girl was wandering lost on West Jasper street. Dressing in a girlish, girlish appearance, the child was a woman's name. The girl was a woman's name. The girl was a woman's name.

Slaying of W. J. Parsille Retold From Depths of Knoxville Jail by Prison Mate of Accused Man in Southern City

EFFECT OF STORY IS STARTLING

VOEGREVILLE, May 31.—Speaking in a typical Kentucky drawl, in a court room, surrounded with excitement and taut nerves, Eugene Ward, 38, former cell-mate of William McLean at the Knox County Jail, Knoxville, Tenn., told the witness stand here on Tuesday night, to retell a confession made to him by McLean of the murder of W. J. Parsille, bachelor farmer of the Manville district last autumn.

Ward is a witness in the preliminary hearing of the murder charge against William McLean, 21, and his father, Kenneth McLean, 58, brought back for trial, under extradition proceedings, from Tennessee.

Revelation of the alleged confession burst upon the court room with the effect of a bombshell. The stage was dramatically set for the telling of the story. A silence as complete as that of a grave, precluded Ward's story of McLean's confession.

The witness, a native of Columbia, Kentucky, is of good appearance, and in company with Deputy United States Marshal James McMurtry, of Knoxville, has mixed freely in Voegreville and made numerous friends here since the commencement of the hearing. He was first brought to Knoxville on Dec. 12, 1932, on charges that were subsequently withdrawn and he was released on his own recognizance.

Ward, under examination by James J. Fawley, crown counsel, said that he and his father originally went to Knoxville to look for work, but were arrested on charges of murder, with a view to gaining time in reaching and creating "the United States" in the city.

Police Court

"I plugged the hole in the door when I first moved in," testified Harold Peters when he took the stand in his own defence before Magistrate Cal. P. H. Primrose in police court Wednesday morning, to answer charges of keeping a bawdy house in rooms 106 and 107 in the Rudyk block. But the plug of which he spoke must have been removed, for after five crown witnesses, who were found guilty of the counts and given the choice of paying, were discharged after Prosecutor Charles Becker withdrew the charges.

Defective Bill Smith's evidence implicated the man. Jean Peters did not take the stand. Peters admitted that his mother was keeping him and that he had been kept in the house. Both accused had previous police records.

Adjustment in a later court was given Rose Bial, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of vagrancy and, according to reports, the trouble arose in a marital muddle.

NEW BUSINESS IN SIGHT

Mr. Cosgrave, Canada commissioner at Shanghai, points out that the trade of China has increased in the last year. Manchuria has supplied about a third of China's total exports, and this share would have been greater in 1931. The Dominion states the effect that the loss of this area will have on China's international trade position.

It suggests also that a radical change has taken place in respect to the Japanese, essentially an industrial and commercial people, now control the trade of Manchuria, and will control the rest of it. Only through arrangements made with them can Canada hope to trade, directly or indirectly, in the commerce of that productive area.

The Japanese will revolutionize Manchurian agriculture, mining, and manufacturing industry; that is a certainty. Canada is well situated to supply them with machinery and materials they may have to import for the purpose of developing that extensive territory. The Dominion states that negotiating new trade agreements that would give Canadian producers the best possible opportunity to supply that demand.

THIS DOLLAR OF OURS

What is the matter with the Canadian dollar in New York?
On March 1st the British pound was worth 24 1/2 pence, United States dollars. The Canadian dollar was worth 43 1/2 United States cents.

Then the United States dollar slumped, and the pound and the Canadian dollar went up, whichever one you prefer to use.

On May 29th the pound was worth 23 1/2 United States dollars. The Canadian dollar was worth 41 cents in New York.

The pound had risen 56 plus cents in United States currency. The Canadian dollar had risen only 4 1/2 cents. Had the Canadian dollar been in keeping with the pound it would have gained more than 13 cents and been worth on May 29th around 96 cents in the New York market.

A generally adverse trade balance did not retard the upward movement of our dollar; the trade balance is now approximately that of the first of March. The Dominion states that New York did not keep our dollar from rising; they are no greater than they were.

It may be visible that the Dominion is the initiator of operations of the economic machinery that a dollar should crawl up like a snail while the pound climbs like a squirrel. Canada's dollar does not look convincing. When the pound went down, a year and a half ago the dollar went up. Now that the pound has gone up, the dollar has gone down.

United States dollar was based on gold at a discount of about seven per cent, with Canada off gold at a discount of 10 per cent. Now, with the dollar on a non-gold basis, our dollar is still at a discount of about twelve per cent.

At this juncture it would be interesting to know if there is any possible conjunction of the planets that would permit a Canadian paper dollar to be worth one United States paper dollar. That does not seem probable, in the light of the last two years' performance of the currencies.

Canadians a few months ago felt that the Dominion was getting through the imposition of an exorbitant margin of exchange. Who is doing the prating now, since New York no longer has the gold standard but a paper with which to hoist exchange against anybody?

"CURTAIN"

Parliament has finally prorogued—without the Canadians regarding it as a "curtain" within their legal rights if they accept them, nor whether it accepted these honors will be recognized. Anyone who is personally concerned in that matter will find Premier Bennett has the privilege of settling the question for himself, according to his "considered view."

When the Premier says that he is not to be disturbed, he means that he is not to be disturbed. But he cannot complain if the neighbors continue to call him "Mr. Bennett" or "Mr. Bennett" to make his own law on the subject. His Majesty is included, it is to be supposed.

The trade agreement framed at the Imperial conference last fall was ratified. An act was passed to compel the railways to "re-operate" in curtailing service, causing trains and diminishing employees. A resolution was passed which raised the cry of "germanyism" in parliament for the first time in thirty years. Taxes were hoisted to a level not reached even in war time.

These are the major achievements of a session that started in October and ended in the latter part of May. The session's chief claim to domination is that parliament sat for six months without making any serious effort to come to grips with the unparalleled conditions of depression that have befallen the country was suffering. The Secretary of State informed the members that deflation in three years had cost Canada more than 100,000 jobs of work. He was well within the mark. But every suggestion of readjusting the value of money to check the deflation was treated with contempt by the Government and its majority.

Nor was anything done in any other direction, save reducing the interest rate on postal saving deposits, to break the dead lock and bring things again into balance. The position taken and consistently kept was that the Government and parliament could do nothing to mend matters; they must simply run their course, if that course ended in universal bankruptcy.

Events have supplied the comment on that plea of helplessness. The President of the United States in six weeks did more to restore life to Canadian business and confidence to the Canadian people than our Government and parliament did in six months of talk. And he did it by adopting the very means our Ministers had rejected with sneers.

Parliament never sat longer, did less, or confronted a situation more demanded drastic action. It was high time the dreary spectacle was brought to an end and the public given a chance to forget the absence of anything resembling national leadership.

Forty Years Ago

From the Files of the Edmonton Bulletin

Sandison, the banana farmer of Brandon, who has been held up to admire thousands of prospective immigrants to the Northwest as a model of what man could do here without capital, appears to have been a Napoleon of finance as well as a banana farmer. In fact, it is now known that his farming was a matter of finance rather than of crop. He has disappeared, leaving his available assets to the amount of about $30,000 to the banks, leaving his employees about $15,000 out of the rest of the public between $50,000 and $75,000 behind the game. Banana farming is not the kind of farming that is done here.

There were 107 legal executions in the United States in 1892, as compared with 123 in 1891. During the same year 236 people were lynched, of whom five were overhauled and over 400 in 1891 and the largest number of lynchings that ever occurred in the country in one year. Of the lynchings 200 were in the southern states and 150 were negroes.

Work is being rushed on laying the water pipes on Victoria Avenue.

Stony Plain farmers have finished seeding. The million dollar centry fund raised by the Presbyterian church has been disbursed.

Nominations take place on Saturday in the St. Albert by-election.

T. K. Muir and J. West are preparing to build large coal bunkers at Edmonton, where coal from mines in the west will be stored for use or shipment as required.

Considerable portions of the last few issues of the Territorial Gazette are taken up by notices of the formation of new school districts. The large proportion of the new districts being organized are in Alberta, gratifying evidence of the spread of settlement and the corresponding extension of the school system.

Arrangements are being completed to make the Edmonton Industrial Exhibition the best ever held in the Territories. Ten thousand dollars will be offered in prize money, four thousand of the amount for horse races.

Winning a building record this year will reach the $80,000 mark.

Poems That Live

THE GRASSHOPPER AND THE CRICKET

Green little cricket in the sunny grass,
Catching your heart up at the feel of June,
Sole voice that's heard amidst the leafy noise,
When even the bees lay at the humming breeze;
And you, you little cricket, you, you, you,
With those who think the crickets come too soon,
Loving the life, and with your trillous tone
Vivis the glad, glad moments of your life.

SIDE GLANCES - By George Clark

By J. S. Cooper

Some American meteorologists — greatly derided California — predict that a more severe earthquake than that recently experienced in Southern California may take place here before the century is out. That region can compose itself again for a period of dormancy. It may not be for several years. It takes time for the pent-up forces of the earth to gather strength for another effort, but the experience of earthquake and volcanic observers that earthquakes and volcanic eruptions do not come singly. They are preliminary quakes and eruptions. After the main quake or eruption there are lesser tremors and belchings before the earth quite settles down.

This isn't written to frighten anyone from going to California, but it's a consideration to consider.

It's just two years more than a century since Lord and Sir William Reid in the West Indies commenced their study of hurricanes, which led to the enunciation of the "law of storms."

Edmontoners are working to enunciate a law of earthquakes that will be complete with the law of storms.

Big ships nowadays do not experience the terrible storms that sailing ships capsize of last century. It's a fact that sailing ships are no longer because there are no big storms today, but because the structure and conduct and path of storms have changed. Information is now available in the direction are sent out, so mariners may avoid them. Readers who want to know more about the subject than this column can afford should read Laughton and Hadden's work on "Great Storms" published in the Deep Sea Library. They tell about most of the great storms of history—the great storm of 1703, the great storm of 1793, the great storm of 1859, the great storm of 1889, the great storm of 1900, the great storm of ## WASHERS OF YELLOW DUST ARE IN CAMP

Colony Pitches Canvas Village Along Banks of Saskatchewan

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, May 31.—A tent colony of place miners is camped along the North Saskatchewan river, just west of town, where boats and rafts are being built for travel to the junction of the rapids in Saskatchewan rivers when the current permits of safe travelling.

Gold has been panned for the last two summers at the confluence of three streams with suitable rivers to place miners.

Although the river is still high, two men went down the river on a log raft on May 29. Rocky Mountain House is the only town on the river, served by highway and rail, until Edmonton is reached.

Scots Successful In Gold Washing

ENTWISLE, May 31.—Two Scotch prospectors, washing gold in the North Saskatchewan river, south of Entwisle, have been making fair returns from their operations. The men use an improved type of Australian gristley with manual results.

Seeding is completed in the district. Seed average approximately equal to that of last year.

J. D. Reed was elected to fill the council vacancy following the resignation of Charles Daniel.

Collieries Doctor Leaves Saunders

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, May 31.—Dr. A. F. Fisher, collieries doctor in the mining town of Saunders West and Alexco for the past 12 years has a light, owing to ill health, for Toronto where he will make his home with his two sisters.

Dr. Fisher was a highly esteemed resident of Saunders West during his long residence there and his departure is regretted. He served overseas in France, Belgium and Salonika, coming to Saunders West on his return to Canada.

An open meeting of employees of the Saunders Creek and Big Horn mines was called by Dr. Fisher. Fisher announced his intention of leaving, at which a committee comprising Messrs. Morgan, Martine, Davies, W. Davies, L. Verhaeghe and M. Martin was appointed to procure a new collieries doctor. At the present time no appointment has been made.

NEW AUTO CAMP

THREE HILLS, May 31.—Three Hills will have a new auto camp, which will be built on the north side of the highway in the town. Every convenience to travellers will be provided.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

A Fascinating Pastime with Albert Edward Wigman, D.Sc., the Noted Author of The Fruit of the Family Tree

1. DO THE YOUNG WOMEN OF TODAY PREFER THE HAIL-FELLOW-WELL-MET TO THE MORE SEDATE TYPE?

YES OR NO

2. IS IT LIKELY TO MAKE CHILDREN PRIGGISH AND EGOTISTICAL TO PRAISE THEM HIGHLY FOR THEIR MENTAL AND PHYSICAL PERFORMANCES?

YES OR NO

3. ARE THERE MORE FOOLISH MEN THAN WOMEN?

YES OR NO

AUTHOR'S NOTE: These answers are given from the scientific point of view. Not all mental questions can be answered with absolute scientific accuracy, but no decision as to what is merely a matter of opinion. Science puts the rights of organized society above the rights of individuals.

How to Win an Argument

A 26-page booklet by Albert Edward Wigman, D.Sc., presenting the scientific facts based upon the study of thousands of actual arguments.

Practical Principles are explained. This booklet should prove of immense practical value to business men and women, men, lawyers and all who are engaged in the study of the art of argument.

It is a book of common sense. More human arguments have been smothered by failure of parents and teachers to praise good performance than the few children who may have been made priggish by overpraise. Professor Lewis Terman and Jesse C. Fenton, of poetry worthy of a high school.

Stanford University, emphasized this in its intensive study of Betty Ford, one of the juvenile literary prodigies of California. This girl at seven wrote essays and

BUSINESS STAR LOOMING LARGE IN WEST SKY

Increase in Employment on Pacific Coast Is Cheering

SEATTLE, May 31.—A month of rising prices and increased employment has brought new confidence to farmers and business men of America's Pacific northwest.

Lumbering, key industry of the area, is showing definite improvement. Beer brought back hop raising, once a profitable field almost forgotten since the advent of prohibition 13 years ago.

DARLING FOOL

By MABEL McLELLIST

MONNIE, O'DARE, beautiful and clever, was sitting in her room, looking at a letter from her mother. She was a beautiful girl, with dark eyes and a smile that could melt the heart of a stone.

NOTED WRITER GIVES ADDRESS ON 'SCOTLAND'

Romance, Grandeur and Poetry of Old Gaul

Clad in the fluttering train of his old Gaul, Robert Watson, Scottish-born Canadian writer, spoke on the romance and grandeur and poetry of Scotland at a meeting in the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday night.

Watson touched first on a return visit to the old home, where he was born and raised and pointed out the great historical figures that had lived in the Scottish home and the rugged virtues that had made the Scottish people what they are.

"Now, all you lads run out of sight, I'll whistle, then, with all my might. If Baldy, the old eagle, hears me, he will come this way. 'I'm sure he won't land on the ground, if everyone is hanging 'round. However, if I am alone, was right.' The eagle swooped down through the trees and landed on the ground with ease. "Gee, he's a big one," Coppy whispered. "What a pretty sight!"

GRAIN — MARKETS — FANNING

PROFIT-TAKING HITS WINNIPEG WHEAT MARKET

WINNIPEG, May 31.—Sweep by profit-taking selling that never lifted, wheat futures came steadily from their advance to close today at a season of the Winnipeg grain market as much as half a cent lower.

Future were near the day's bottom-most points as they finished 1 1/2 cent under the previous close. At 4:01, July 4 1/2, October 4 1/2, and December 4 1/2.

"Bull" forces, striving to push prices upwards on the strength of good export sales and other bullish reports, were impotent in the face of the continuous selling. Calmness in the market of the past two days, profit-takers were active throughout the entire session.

Activities of profit-takers, who have been absent from the market in the past few days, restrained the bullish enthusiasm in evidence today. Advances of nearly a cent marked up at the start soon were erased and future thereafter fluctuated nervously and narrowly. Trading for the greater part of the session was fairly active.
